

Six hurt in Boksburg lightning strike

February 09, 2007, 21:00

Six people were injured in a lightning strike on a Boksburg vegetable farm, said Netcare 911. They told paramedics they were working in the fields when it started to rain, said Nick Dollman, the Netcare 911 spokesperson.

They were injured when lightning struck a puddle of water close to them. Two were seriously hurt and four had minor injuries. Three of them were men and three women.

Dollman said they were all taken to the Sunward Park hospital in stable conditions. - Sapa
