25/12/2005 15:14 - (SA)

Nongoma - Six people burnt beyond recognition when the rondawel they were sitting in was stuck by lightning and caught fire at a village in Nongoma on Saturday night, KwaZulu-Natal police said on Sunday.

Captain Vusi Mbatha said three other people in the group of friends managed to escape and sustained minor injuries. They were admitted to the Nongoma hospital.

The victims, who had started early Christmas celebrations, were between the ages of 20 and 41.
