

Lightning on Ethiopia wedding kills three

July 20 2010 at 04:44PM

Get IOL on your
mobile at m.iol.co.za

Addis Ababa - Lightning struck a wedding ceremony in western Ethiopia, killing three people, police said on Tuesday.

The victims, a man and two women who were talking on their mobile phones, were stuck on Sunday afternoon in Assosa, nearly 700km west of the capital, local police told the state-run Ethiopian News Agency.

Four other guests were also hit during the wedding but have since recovered after receiving treatment. - Sapa-AFP