

Angola: Seven People Killed by Lightning in Ekunha

11 January 2011

Ekunha — Seven people died between January 02 and 10, in Tchikala village, Ekunha District, central Huambo Province, victim of lightning, on Tuesday here announced the chieftain Daniel Chingula, ANGOP has learnt.

The heavy rains and lightning also caused the death of 16 heads of cattle, destroyed 70 hectares of plantations of sweet potato, beans and maize. Meanwhile, 87 residences were also destroyed by the rains and lightning, leaving 98 families homeless.