A bolt of lightning has struck and killed a man in chief Mwanachingwala's area in Mazabuka.

The lightning also set ablaze a Zambia Sugar cane field and left two men who were in the company of the deceased hospitalised after they sustained injuries.

According to one of the survivors Ben Like, who was in the company of the deceased identified as Tamo Matomola, the incident happened on Wednesday around 16:00 hours when the trio was walking on a road through the sugarcane fields.

Like said Matomola died on the spot while their friend Obet Ng'andu was severely injured.
