

Namibia: Lightning Kills Four People

BY MATHIAS HAUFIKU, 20 NOVEMBER 2012

Rundu — A bolt of lightning killed a mother and two of her children at Mukekete village in the Kahenge Constituency outside Rundu on Saturday evening.

The mother and her two children were in their hut when the lightning struck them. The deceased have been identified as Emily Mbere (40) and her two children, Christine Murongo (4) and Simon Hausiku (2).

In a similar incident, 67-year-old Johannes Mbwanga from the Mile 10 village near Rundu died after he was also struck by lightning in his house on Friday afternoon. Mbwanga's next of kin have been informed.
