Huambo: Lightning Kills Four People in Bailundo District

Bailundo, 10/20 – Four people perished due to a lightning strike, followed by a heavy shower, on Friday afternoon at the chief district of Bailundo, 82 kilometres to the north of Huambo city.

Witnesses told ANGOP that the mortal victims, two women, a child and a man, were at the municipal market where they usually sold.

They added that apart from the victims, the rain also destroyed residences at Bailundo village.

With these cases, the number of deaths caused by lightning in the central Huambo province rises to 11, since the start of the rainy season, early this month.
